About our Speakers

David P Thomas is a seasoned professional with over 18 years of experience in facility management. Using his MBA, CFM and LEED AP credentials, David acts as Operations Manager for the Austin Convention Center, Parmer Event Center and three City of Austin parking facilities, overseeing 2,000,000 sq. ft. in facilities and managing a staff of 125. David currently serves as Vice President for the Austin Chapter of IFMA and is Project Manager for 2 City of Austin LEED EB projects. Using these platforms to educate members of both the public and private sector on green initiatives, David strives to ensure that the City of Austin remains a leader in sustainability.

Scott Mitchell is the Field Training Specialist for JohnsonDiversey, covering Western North America. He has been with JohnsonDiversey for 12 years, much of the time as a District Manager in Southern California. In his time as Field Training Specialist, he has gained much experience and knowledge of green products, procedures, certification and communication. He shares his platform with Joseph Meyer, the local Johnson Wax Professional Market Manager.

Don Parsons is the District Manager for Georgia Pacific South Texas. Don has over 20 years experience in the Jan/San segment, working for Proctor and Gamble and Clorox Company prior to joining Georgia Pacific. He shares the platform with Donnie Gipson. Donnie is the Senior Account Executive for Georgia Pacific with 24 years experience with Georgia Pacific. He is also an expert in GP systems and an expertise in multiple business segments including source reduction.

Gary Greear is the co-owner of Coleman, Greear & Associates, a manufactures rep agency specializing in plastics and paper with primary emphasis on can liners and Berry Plastics. Berry Plastics is an industry leading manufacturer of can liners and offers unique green options for sustainability, source reduction and compostable/biodegradable solutions for their clients. Gary spends much of his time building cost saving can liner solutions for his customers with emphasis on source reduction.

Jonathan Younghouse is a graduate of The University of Texas at Austin. After graduating in 2001, he started his career with Newell Rubbermaid as a Field Marketing Representative with the Home Depot division. In 2002, he joined Rubbermaid Commercial Products as an Account Manager.
